

EXPLORE Ipoh

LIVE IPOH

PLACES OF INTEREST

CONCUBINE LANE

Concubine Lane, nestled in Ipoh's Old Town, is a captivating alleyway steeped in history and culture. Once known for housing the concubines of wealthy tin miners, this narrow lane has evolved into a bustling hub of quaint shops, eateries, and art installations. Its restored heritage buildings and vibrant atmosphere draw visitors seeking a taste of Ipoh's past and present, making it a must-visit destination that beautifully bridges the gap between tradition and modernity.

📍 Concubine Lane - Lorong Panglima, 30000 Ipoh

HO YAN HOR MUSEUM

This two storey museum is at a street corner of Ipoh, once you enter the place, you can know all about the life history and the struggles of the owner of this museum, Mr. Ho Kai Cheong. What is a must try is the Ho Yan Hor herbal tea which has the flavour of the place stitched in every sip. There is no entry fee hence anyone can visit this place for some fun times!

📍 Ho Yan Hor Museum - 1 Jalan Bijeh Timah, 30000 Ipoh

SAM POH TONG CAVE

A famous cave temple located in Gunung Rapat, Sam Poh Tong Cave is an inspiring work of art and is believed to be the largest cave temple of the country. Set amidst the scenic beauty, the temple consists of numerous Buddha statues and figures of other deities scattered all over the cave among the limestone formation.

The front of the temple is adorned with a beautiful garden surrounding a pond. The garden itself is beautifully decorated with pagodas and stone lanterns.

📍 Sam Poh Tong Cave - Kampung Gunung Rapat, 31350 Ipoh

EXPLORE IPOH

LIVE IPOH

PLACES OF INTEREST

GOLF COURSES

Golf is considered one of the luxury sports in the world. It is played by top corporate during their business meets. Ipoh has few premiere golf clubs. They are in association with clubs and resorts. The top three golf clubs and resorts in Ipoh are Clearwater Sanctuary (18 holes) is amidst lakes and woodland and is perfect for family picnics, Damai Laut (18 holes) is set in a natural seaside resort and undulating terrain, and is a hatchery for green turtles and Meru Valley (27 holes) is set among hilly terrain and additionally includes few residential properties.

📍 Clearwater Sanctuary Golf Club
LOT 6019, Jalan Changkat Larang, 30200 Batu Gajah

📍 Damai Laut Golf Club
1, Hala Damai 2, 32200 Lumut

📍 Meru Valley Golf Club - Jalan Bukit Meru, 30020 Ipoh

GUA TEMPURUNG

The Gua Tempurung cave is one of the attractions that let tourists dive into the deeper and darker mysteries of the past. Covering a total length of about 4.5 Km, the cave is one of the longest in Malaysian Peninsula. Here you can find three huge chambers as well as magnificent structures of stalagmites and stalactites. Other attractions include the underground stream and waterfalls. Made of five large and very ancient dooms, it is an astonishing exhibit of beautiful natural rock formations.

📍 Gua Tempurung - Jln Gua Tempurung, 31600 Gopeng

LOST WORLD OF TAMBUN

If you are looking for a perfect holiday destination which has the right mix of fun, thrill and adventure, you should visit Lost World Tambun in Malaysia. This is a theme park which is packed with high-voltage action and drama, that will give you some of the greatest adrenalin-high moments in life.

📍 Lost World Of Tambun -1, Persiaran Lagun Sunway 1, Sunway City Ipoh, 31150 Ipoh

HISTORICAL MONUMENTS/BUILDING

IPOH RAILWAY STATION

This colonial architecture building was started building in 1894 and completed in 1917. The Station reflects Moorish and Victorian styles of architecture. It also has some features of Mughal architecture, that's why it's affectionately called the "Taj Mahal of Ipoh".

📍 Ipoh Railway Station-Stesen KTM, 30000 Ipoh

BIRCH MEMORIAL CLOCK TOWER

Birch Memorial Clock Tower is a magnificent monument built in 1909. It was built in the memory of James Birch who was the first British resident of Perak, and its biggest attraction is the 1.95m diameter bell. A huge horizontal band of sculpture, featuring Moses, Buddha, Shakespeare and Charles Darwin is present here. There are tourists crowding this place during maximum hours. This place still has the touch of the colonial world and it will surely grow a lot of interest in the hearts of the tourists.

📍 Birch Memorial Clock Tower-Jalan Dato' Sagor, 31650 Ipoh

IPOH TOWN HALL

The Ipoh Town Hall is a captivating architectural gem that graces the heart of Ipoh, Malaysia. Designed by Arthur Benison Hubback in the late 19th century, blends Moorish and Neo-Renaissance architectural styles, creating a striking and intricate façade. Its prominent clock tower, graceful arches, and ornate detailing make it a distinguished symbol of the city's colonial past. Today, the Ipoh Town Hall stands as a testament to the city's rich heritage, attracting both history enthusiasts and architecture admirer who appreciate its timeless charm and historical significance.

📍 Ipoh Town Hall -2700, Jalan Panglima Bukit Gantang Wahab, 30000 Ipoh

LOCAL DELICACIES

TAKE A CUP OF TRADITIONAL WHITE COFFEE

Ipoh white coffee is a beloved Malaysian beverage known for its unique preparation method and rich, aromatic flavor. Originating from the city of Ipoh in Malaysia, this coffee is made by roasting high-quality coffee beans with margarine and then brewing them with condensed milk. The result is a creamy, sweet coffee with a delightful hint of buttery richness. Its distinct taste and smooth texture have made Ipoh white coffee a cherished choice among coffee enthusiasts, both locally and internationally. Whether enjoyed hot or cold, this coffee embodies the essence of Malaysian coffee culture, inviting people to savor its distinctive flavor profile.

White coffee kopitiam at Ipoh old town

-Sin Yoon Loong

15A, Jalan Bandar Timah, 30000 Ipoh

-Nam Heong

2, Jalan Bandar Timah, 30000 Ipoh

-Ah Chow

31, Jalan Bandar Timah, 30000 Ipoh

TAU FU FAH (SOYA BEANCURD PUDDING)

Ipoh tau fu fah is a delightful Malaysian dessert that hails from the city of Ipoh in Perak state. This sweet treat consists of silky-smooth tofu pudding served with a fragrant and mildly sweet syrup. The tofu pudding is typically made from fresh soybeans, giving it a delicate texture that melts in your mouth. It's a popular street food in Malaysia, often enjoyed as a refreshing dessert on a hot day or as a comforting treat during any season. The combination of the soft tofu and sweet syrup creates a harmonious balance of flavors and textures, making Ipoh tau fu fah a beloved dessert among locals and visitors alike.

Tau fu fah (soya beancurd pudding)

-Funny Mountain Soya Beancurd

50, Jalan Mustapha Al-Bakri, Taman Jubilee, 30300 Ipoh

-Woong Kee Beancurd

No.32-38A, Jalan Ali Pitchay, Taman Jubilee, 30250 Ipoh

-Lai Kee Soya Bean

32-54, Jalan Theatre, Taman Jubilee, 30300 Ipoh

EXPLORE Ipoh

LIVE IPOH

LOCAL DELICACIES

HEONG PEAH

Ipoh is known for its delectable Heong Peah. In Ipoh, the Heong Peah is still created using the traditional charcoal-baked process, giving it a unique taste, unlike other biscuits. These flaky, palm-sized biscuits are filled with a fragrant mixture of sweet and savory ingredients, including maltose and shallots, creating a delightful blend of flavors and textures. Ipoh heong peah is a cherished souvenir for visitors and a beloved local snack, offering a taste of Ipoh's culinary heritage and a delightful treat for those seeking a unique taste experience.

Heong Peah
-Seng Kee

177, Lorong Gunung Rapat 3,
Kampung Gunung Rapat, 31350 Ipoh

-Yee Hup

44, Jalan Leong Sin Nam,
Kampung Jawa, 30300 Ipoh

TAMBUN POMELO

Ipoh Tambun Pomelo is a renowned fruit variety hailing from the charming town of Tambun in Ipoh, Malaysia. These pomeles are celebrated for their distinctive sweet and slightly tangy flavor, making them a favorite among fruit enthusiasts. The fruit is known for its large size, thick rind, and juicy, succulent flesh. Its delightful taste and refreshing aroma make it a popular choice for both locals and tourists alike. Ipoh Tambun Pomeles are not only a delicious treat but also a source of pride for the region, showcasing the rich agricultural heritage of Ipoh.

Tambun Pomelo

-Go Chin Pomelo Nature Park

158258A, Jalan Ampang Tambun, 31400, Ipoh

